Dr. Bagby.

Mr. George F. Bagby, son of Rev. G. F. Bagby, and a former employe of this office, graduated from Pulte Medical College on Monday and is now a full-fledged M. D. He was the valedictorian of his class.

Going to Farming.

Capt. Smith Cook, the Kentucky Giant, has sold his place at Hatton Station to Messrs. Fulton & Bohannon, given up the Station agency and will go to raising tobacco on a farm near Bagdad with his brother-in-law.

Ladies.

Are you suffering from weakness? Is your complexion sallow? Do you have constant back-ache? Are you constipated? Do you feel all tired out? If you have any of these feelings begin at once to use Dr. Hale's Household Tea. It will give you a clear complexion, will restore you to health and strength and will make you feel like a new person. Get it today at Carpenter's South Side Drug Store.

Refunded the Money.

Some two years ago an effort was made to raise a fund for the purpose of establishing a public hospital in this city, and quite a sum of money was collected. Not enough, however, to accomplish the purpose, and after repeated efforts to get our people to take hold and push the matter to a successful termination, the leaders in the movement became discouraged and gave up the fight. The money raised was left in the hands of a committee of ladies, who, after waiting some time, in hopes that the movement would receive a new impetus, finally concluded to refund the money to the subscribers, which they did last week.

If it is true that philosophers are wise men, then Dr. Bull, of Cough Syrup fame, must have been one of the greatest of philosophers.

The Witch.

The attraction which comes to the Opera House, Wednesday, March 23d, will be found worthy of its audience. "The Witch" is the play and Marie Hubert Frohman is the star. Both have been praised by men who ought to know what they are talking about, and we have the promise of Manager Frohman that the production shall be artistic to the last detail. The story of the play is founded on the witchcraft panic in 1692. The truth has not been sacrificed, and unlike most historical dramas and novels "The Witch" can be used as a history lesson with advantage. The aim of the authors to correctly reproduce has been seconded by Manager Frohman in the stage setting of the play. The scenery is not only beautiful, it is said, but appropriate to the minutest particular. Two of the scenes especially receive praise. The one representing the common in old Salem, and the other "Gallows Hill" at daybreak. Miss Frohman made her debut as the sympathetic heroine in "May Blossom," "Snow Bound" and "False Charms." Her career has not been long nor varied, but she has made a reputation already. Business Manager, Jursen's innovation in the manner of printing the cast on the programme is worthy of praise. The characters are arranged and numbered according to their first entrance, so as to enable the spectator to at once recognize them.

Worn and Wan and Weak and Weary.

Ho, ye women, worn and weary, with wan faces and so indescribably weak. Those distressing, dragging-down pains, and that constant weakness and wornness and weariness can be cured. For all such sufferers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a panacea of inestimable value. As an invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system. For "overworked," "worn out," debilitated teachers, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic. As a soothing and strengthening nerve, "Favorite Prescription" is unequalled and invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, exhaustion, prostration, hysteria spasms and other distressing, nervous symptoms, commonly attendant upon functional and organic diseases. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Fell From a Barge.

Andrew Shelton, a colored man employed by Mr. E. M. Williams, the coal dealer, was engaged in pumping out a barge of coal at Salender's wharf, Tuesday afternoon, when the spring pole attached to the pump came loose, and, as Shelton was standing upon the side of the barge, he was thrown backwards into the river. As he could not swim he soon sank in twenty feet of water and was drowned. Another negro was upon the barge at the time, and had he exercised presence of mind enough to shove Shelton a pole lying near he might have been saved, but he was too much frightened to attempt to do anything until Shelton was going under the last time, when it was too late. The body was recovered in an hour or so after just about the place it sank the last time.

Coroner Dehoney was notified and held an inquest over the remains, the jury returned a verdict of death from accidental drowning.

Who Has a Bog Spavin?

Mr. G. W. Dugan, of Danville, remarks, "The Quinn's Ointment you sent me has removed a large Bog Spavin and gave perfect satisfaction." This remedy is worth many times the price and will remove blemishes for which you would gladly pay fifty dollars.

The Ex-Porter a Burglar.

John Fields, colored, for many years porter at the Capital Hotel, was arrested Wednesday upon two charges of burglary. On Monday night Mr. George H. Watson, who boards at the Capital Hotel, was awakened by feeling some one pulling at his pants which were lying on the bed. He arose, found Fields hidden under the bed and kicked him out of the room. On Tuesday night some one entered the residence of Messrs. Church Bros., on Main street, and robbed Hon. D. W. Tribble, member of the Legislature from Madison county, who boards there, of fifty dollars. The loss was made known to the police, who arrested Fields, took him to the house, and his foot fitted the track exactly made in the snow in the back yard by the thief. He was lodged in jail and had an examining trial on Wednesday before Judge Williams who held him over to the June term of the Circuit Court. He failed to give bond and is still in jail.

Fields has already served one term in the penitentiary and the prospects seem to be good for his donning the stripes a second time.

Height of Cruelty.

Nervous women seldom receive the sympathy they deserve. While often the pictures of health, they are constantly ailing. To withhold sympathy from these unfortunates is the height of cruelty. They have a weak heart, causing shortness of breath, fluttering, pain in side, weak and hungry spells, and finally swelling of ankles, oppression, choking, smothering and dropsy. Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is just the thing for them. For their nervousness, headache, weakness, etc., his Restorative Nervine is unequalled. Fine treatise on "Heart and Nervous Diseases" and marvelous testimonials free. Sold and guaranteed by J. W. Gayle.

The City Assessment.

Mr. J. E. Kirtley, City Assessor, and his assistant, Mr. J. W. Graham, completed the work of listing the property in the city on Saturday and have turned their books over to the City Council. The following is the result of their work:

Atkins' Patent Concave Tooth Dexter.
DIXIE'S FAVORITE. FOR THE WOODS OF THE SOUTH IT HAS NO EQUAL.
The patent by which this Saw is protected consists of a depression of the face of the cutting teeth through the center from point to base, thus removing all friction while in use, giving strength and stiffness to the teeth and increasing three-fold the durability of the "set." WE CHALLENGE THE WORLD to produce a Saw equaling the ATKINS' FAST CUTTING DEXTER.

PRICE: (Silver Steel, Including Handles, $1.00 per foot.
(Special Steel, Without Handles, .75 per foot.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.
The large demand for the ATKINS' CONCAVE TOOTH DEXTER Saw has led competitors to make inferior Saws which they claim "as good as the Dexter." These imitation Saws are made from a lower grade of steel, inferior workmanship, and without the patent concave tooth.
Ask your hardware dealer for the "ATKINS DEXTER" and take no other. If the dealer will not order it for you, remit amount with order direct to us.
